VALUABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE!

ON THE SECOND THURSDAY IN DECEMBER, that being the 13th day of the month, I will sell to the highest bidder, upon the premises, that desirable lately owned, and resided upon, by Miss Elizabeth Hinton, dec'd.

COTTON PLANTATION,

The tract is situated on Neuse River, six miles East of Raleigh, on the Tarboro' Road, adjoining the lands of David Hinton. It contains of land,—from THREE TO FOUR HUNDRED of which are cleared. About 100 acres are fine low grounds, not liable to over-flow. This is considered one of the best Cotton Plantations in the County, and the bottom land will always produce enough Corn to sustain it.

ELEVEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-FIVE ACRES,

THE IMPROVEMENTS

consist of a handsome Dwelling House, containing seven rooms, located on a commanding site. There are three frame houses also on the premises, with two rooms each, and all necessary out-houses, cabins, barns, gin house, carriage house, &c.

As this land will be sold on the liberal credit of only one-third cash, the balance payable in one, two and three years, a rare opportunity is afforded to parties wishing to purchase a first-class farm.

Personal security will be required, and title will be with-held until the last payment is made.

NOTE.—This Land will be divided into three tracts, the House-tract 600 acres, another tract of 350 acres, and another of 245, plots of which may be seen at my office above Creech's Store.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARMON.

Having been appointed agent for the above Company, I respectfully call the attention of the citizens of this section of North Carolina, to the fact that this is a Southern Company with an authorized Capital of $500,000. It's business is ably conducted, by influential, reliable and wealthy citizens of Tennessee. It has the finest references, and has always been exceedingly prompt in its payments, as can be shown by its records, being sustained by wealthy gentlemen.

It takes both Life and Fire risks on terms as low as any Eastern Company.

This Company is just being introduced into its sister State and I hope it will be well patronized.

Monday Evening, Dec. 3, 1866.

Rebelliousness of the South—North Carolina Obstinacy.

The South is charged with rebelliousness and contumacy, because it does not accept the Howard amendment as a God-send, and even in matters of election, where if a man act at all as an American, he must be free and unrestrained, because the people of the South do not bow obsequiously to their Northern masters. By none, however, are they more fiercely and bitterly assailed from day to day, than by Mr. Holden in the Standard newspaper, for their rebelliousness. He tells Congress that in North Carolina, we are as rebellious and as obstinate as we were during the war—that we are controlled by the same feelings and policy that ruled in the rebellion, and that but for fear, we would break out again in open hostility. The falsehood, maliciousness and mischievousness of the Standard, were never more rampant than at present. Its counsels were never more violent, never more dictated by a meaner, baser spirit. They are dictated by no love for the Union, no desire for the promotion of the quiet and prosperity of the nation, but by the grovelling spirit of self-promotion, and to reek his vengeance upon those who scorn to promote a man, who has shown himself so utterly unreliable and unworthy.

We deny utterly, that there is any foundation for the charges made by the Standard, or the New York Herald and Times, which have now become the bitter persecutors of the South. We are told that the Herald has a correspondent here, who is cheek by jowl with the Holden factionists, and of course draws both his information and his venom from that quarter, and ventilates it with the gusto of the bitterest enemy. We have not seen the man, nor do we desire to know any man, who caters for the gratification of the enemies of North Carolina.

Where is the evidence of a rebellious spirit in North Carolina? Where the proof that we are simply contumacious or obstinate? We have been overwhelmed and conquered. We acknowledge the situation and have submitted to it with a better grace, then was ever known before, by any people. Yet we have never felt that we were degraded serfs and slaves. With only the exceptional classes of fanatics, demagogues and debased editors, the Northern people have disclaimed any desire or purpose to force us into abject slavery. We are still American citizens, and feel that the blood of freemen still courses through our veins. Yet we have laid aside, from the day of surrender, all evidences of hostility. We turned our "swords into plow shares and our spears into pruning hooks." We obey the laws however grinding or humiliating,—we have paid our taxes, poor as we are, though unrepresented,—we have consented to be stripped of all our property which gave offence to the North; our people who held to the doctrine of secession, taught by their fathers and by those who assail them, have abandoned it forever. They have asked no rights for themselves, but have asked to be reinstated as American citizens under the Constitution of their fathers. They have uttered no rebellious sentiments against the government, but they have repelled the attacks of falsehood and malice, made by their enemies. Where then our contumacy?

We were told that we must abolish slavery, must ignore the doctrine of secession, must repudiate the war debt, and must send loyal men to Congress, and we should be admitted back to our former privileges. We did so, promptly and sincerely, at the cost of utter bankruptcy and poverty. The people of North Carolina have put no disloyal man in office. Not one can be found filling any post of profit or trust. Generally, they are men of probity and integrity, and are quiet citizens. We defy any and all of our assailants to prove the contrary.

But the North is not satisfied. Can any one tell what would satisfy her? Do Holden, and Bennett, and Raymond know? Do Stevens, and Sumner, and Wade, and Boutwell, and Phillips and Butler know? Will any one tell us what will satisfy the North?

The last Congress presented to the States the Constitutional amendment for adoption. Bennett and Raymond and others assert that that was the test in the late Northern elections, of Southern admission and reconciliation. Congress refused to submit it as a test. Mr. Stevens, Mr. Sumner and their co-operators, declare that the amendment was not a sine qua non. Who can decide between them? Holden, who at first, professed to be opposed to the Howard amendment and only urged it upon our people as "the best they could get," now declares it is better than we deserve—that it is not stringent enough. Does any one know what Holden is for or who he is for, except Holden?

The people of North Carolina can regard the Howard amendment in no other light than as a proposition to them to amend the Constitution, submitted for their action, on its own merits.—The refusal of Congress to submit it as a condition to the admission of our representatives, decided that point. They have weighed it in the balances of their best judgment and decided against it. They are not ready for so radical a change in the government. They are not ready by their own votes to degrade and ostracise themselves and their fellow-citizens.—They have been cured of the folly of attempting to destroy the government, which they believe that amendment will more effectually do, than their late revolt. They are cured of their rebellious spirit, and desire to live under the government as it is. Is there any rebellion in that? Is there any obstinacy in that, except the stubbornness of patriotism?

But the Standard and Herald are outraged at the election of Judge Manly to the Senate.—They see in that the stubbornness of rebellion. It was the duty of the Senate to elect some one A year ago, the State had sent two Senators and seven Representatives to Congress, free from the taint of secession. They had selected a Governor as free from the taint of disloyalty as any other competent man in the State, and had re-elected him. Was the North satisfied? Mr. Pool had been sent to the Senate. Was he any more acceptable that Gov. Graham? Was Mr. Jones, of the Mountain District, any more acceptable than Mr. Hanes or the rest? Where is the evidence?

Mr. Pool had forfeited the confidence of our people. The Legislature could not elect him, without infidelity to their constituency. We had no man in the State, against whom Holden or the North would not have raised objections,—none worthy of the position, who could or would take the "test oath." As to ourselves, any sound, honest, loyal, capable man, would have suited us. If we had certainly known that we had any such man in the State, who would have been acceptable to the North, we should have preferred that man. Our people would have preferred him. But we would not have supported a dishonest, unsound man to have pleased the North.

The Press agent of this city telegraphed upon the election of Judge Manly, that he had been a Judge of the Supreme Court under the Confederacy, (!) was an original secessionist, and is a State Rights man. The Standard is evidently disturbed at his election, and the New York Herald, no doubt under promptings from this quarter, speaks of Judges Manly and Battle in no flattering terms. The above telegram is calculated to make a false impression.

If Judge Manly was an original secessionist we never knew it. He certainly lacked a good deal of being as "original" a secessionist as Mr. Holden. As we have heretofore stated, Judge Manly took no active part in politics before or during the war. If he sympathised with the secessionists before the war, we never knew it. Many years before the war he filled the position of Supreme Court Judge of this State, with Judges Pearson and Battle, and was continued with them, during the Confederacy. When the State adhered to the Confederacy he went with her, and continued to sustain her to the end, though he took no public part in politics. In some of his decisions during the war, he differed with his associates. He differs with us and with many other people about many things, but we have yet to hear the first man say, that he was not a pure, conscientious, honest man. Who that assails him deserve such a commendation?

We find that some good Conservatives think, that a more acceptable man to the North could have been selected. Who is that man? Is there a scintilla of evidence that any respectable man in North Carolina, for whom honest, conscientious men could vote, would be more so? We thought that in electing Gov. Worth, and in electing Gov. Graham, Mr. Pool, and Messrs. Stubbs, Clark, Fuller, Turner, Hanes, Walkup and Jones, that some of them, if not all, would have pleased our Northern friends. What was the result? The fact is, that some of the friends of Judge Manly urged his claims upon the very ground: that the Judge having been on the bench of the State, having filled no position under the Confederacy, and having avoided all activity either in politics or in the war, would be more acceptable at the North, than most of those whose names were brought forth. It is evident that Mr. Pool was not acceptable to Mr. Logan, by far one of the most consistent Radicals in this State but for his unfortunate disposition to go to the Confederate Congress, as he refused to vote for him, except in one instance. It may be, that he thinks he ought to be forgiven for that offence, especially if he went there as Mr. Pool went into the State Senate, to embarrass the Confederate cause. We have, however, never heard Mr. Logan charged with this inconsistency, nor can we believe that he can justly be so charged.

RAVING MAD.—We sympathize with our cotemporary, the Standard. Its two last numbers indicate a temper—a recklessness which demands commisseration. Its violent tone shows a depravation and a weakness, which are truly deplorable. If we have in any way contributed to it, we regret it. Our only object has been to cure and reform a demoralized son of the good old North State, who arrays himself blindly and shamelessly against her dearest interests, and against a people to whom he is indebted for all he is and has.

Something the Legislature Might Do.

A considerable number of our State Legislators manifest a commendable spirit of justice and mercy on the subject of relief for the people, in the matter of indebtedness, which "well spring of affection," in nine cases out of ten comes from that source from which originate the action of men, viz: self-interest. Now there are said to be still quite a number of Confederate soldiers detained at the Elmyra hospital, Elmyra, New York, by disease and wounds, many of whom are long since reckoned by his friends and relatives among the dead. If there is really so much love for the dear people existing in the hearts of our wise legislators, why are not steps taken to ascertain if North Carolina has any Confederate representative abroad unable to regain his home and friends through want of means. We trust some inquiry will be made in this direction speedily.—Wilson Carolinian.

We call the attention of the Legislature to the above. If the rumor be true, something should be done towards getting them home.—EDS. SENTINEL.

COTTON PICKED BY MACHINERY.—The Memphis Appeal speaks of a machine invented for picking cotton that was used on the grounds of Dr. Thomas, of Chelsea, and says:

"The machine is based on the wagon principle, having two wheels which move the machinery, consisting of two cylinders of brushes in the front, one at the back, and a cylinder of fine teeth in the centre, with a receptacle at the back holding from 300 to 400 pounds of the cotton with seed as picked. The machine is made to take two rows, the animal pulling it passing between the rows, and the driver seated high above the entire works. We saw the machine work, and though we discovered it still lacked many qualities which will have to be added, we feel sure it will in time be a success, and yet crown the inventor with glory."

THE SENTINEL.

Monday Evening, Dec. 3, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FREIGHTS.—See R. & G. R. R. arrangements for Freights. The Petersburg R. R. has adopted a schedule, which carries freight and passengers forward at once.

LOUISBURG FEMALE COLLEGE.—This institution opens its next session in January, with an able Faculty. Mess. Jones, and Alderman and the ladies are well known. We can speak from personal knowledge of Prof. Hahr whose superior we have not known.

Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co, notice fresh arrivals of goods. Their stock is very large.

RICH LANDS FOR SALE.—Mrs. Collins, Executrix of the late Josiah Collins, Esq., of Washington county, will offer splendid tracts of land at public sale. Much of it is equal to any lands in the Republic. See advertisement.

"IS THE COTTON TAX CONSTITUTIONAL?"—This is the title of a neat pamphlet, by Malcom Campbell, Esq., a member of the New York bar, in which he examines the question with much force and acuteness, critically reviewing law of Congress, bringing to his aid much legal learning, and concluding that the law is unconstitutional.

GRAND LODGE.—The Grand Lodge of the State meets in this city, at their Hall, this evening at 7 o'clock. We are glad to learn that Judge Reade, the Grand Master, is in this city in good health. Numbers of gentlemen from abroad will be in attendance.

WOMAN.—Dr. John P. Atkinson, of Danville, Va., will deliver a Lecture on "Woman in her various Aspects and Characters," on Tuesday, to-morrow evening, in the Commons Hall in this city. The press of Danville speak highly of the Lecture. The Times says, "as a production of art, we feel warranted in saying, the address is not only one of merit in style and conception, but one which would have a good influence, in its bearing upon society."

"ITINERANT."—We regret deeply that the pressure upon our time, led us to forget to correct an error in the last communication of our correspondent "Itinerant," relative to the present condition of the old Court House at Germanton. He called our attention to it at once, but it was forgotten. He wrote store but one of our compositors who reads badly put it stable, and it was overlooked in the proof-reading. Our Germanton friends may be sure that "Itinerant" entertains the most grateful sense of their kindness, as well as of the people generally he met with in his trip. It was farthest from his thoughts to offend any one. We beg our cotemporaries, the Winston Sentinel and People's Press to insert this.

Mr. Gorham, one of the Commoners from Beaufort, was suddenly called home on account of the illness of his family; hence his name does not appear in the proceedings of the House on Saturday.

Impromptu.

We learn one of our Senators perpetrated the following joke to-day on the Senate:

There are "Moore" Robins than Berrys,
Yet one only of each;
Of Leeches there are many,
Yet only one Leach.

For the Sentinel.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Dec. 1, 1866.

Messrs. Editors:—The semi-annual examination closed at our University yesterday. As you are the printers for the State, and this the University of the State, where many of the youth of the State are preparing to become its strength and hope, I send you the results of this intellectual contest.

Among the Juniors, the first honor in scholarship was won by Messrs. Burgwyn, of Northampton County, Busbee, of Raleigh, and Mayerick, of San Antonio, Texas. The second, by Messrs. Harper, of Lenoir County, Morehead, of Greensborough, and Pearson, of Morganton; and the third, by Messrs. Battle, of Tarboro', and Horner, of Granville County. Messrs. A. W. Graham, of Hillsborough, and P. B. Meares, of Cabarrus County, were reported as worthy of the second distinction in the Languages, and Mr. Fetter, of Chapel Hill, as worthy of the third. In this class Messrs. Fetter, Harper, Jones, of Wilcox County, Ala., and Pearson were absent from no duty during the session.

Among the Sophomores, the first honor in scholarship was assigned to Messrs. Fries, of Salem, and J. M. Webb, of Alamance County. The second was assigned to Messrs. Porter, of Tarboro, Stevenson, of Newbern, Walker, of Wilmington, and J. C. Webb, of Hillsboro'; and the third, to Messrs. Bitting, of Surry Co., Cochran, of Glennville, Ala., Graham, of Fayetteville, and Murchison, of Summerville.

The first honor in the Languages was assigned to Messrs. Cowper, of Hertford Co., McNider, of Edenton, and Wilson, of Warrenton; and the second, to Mr. Phillips, of Hillsborough.

The second in Mathematics, was given to Mr. Little, of Anson County.

Messrs. Bitting, Bledsoe, of Raleigh, Cochran, Fries, Little, and J. Means, of Cabarrus, were absent from no duty during the session.

The Faculty would not give a "first honor" to any one of the Freshmen. But Mr. Buchanan, of Richmond County, was considered the best scholar in that class. Messrs. Battle, of Edgecombe, Lewis, of Tarboro', and Winston, of Windsor were the next best, while Messrs. Ferebee, of Camden County, and Yellowley, of Greenville, acquitted themselves with credit in some of their studies.

Messrs. Buchanan, Cook, of Warren, Ferebee, Malloy, of Richmond Co., Powell, of Edgecombe, and Winston were absent from no duty during the session.

No distinctions are ever assigned to the Seniors at the middle of their year. But if "the Pioneers" of Raleigh, will come to the next Commencement, they will, in all probability, find those who were ahead of them with "bat and ball," also among "the first" in handling books, and worthy rivals for the smiles of Beauty. Caldwell Bible Society.

LENOIR, CALDWELL Co., N. C., November 22d, 1866.

At a meeting of the friends of the Bible cause, held in the Presbyterian church, in Lenoir, in connexion with the visit of Rev. Mr. Hardy, the regular agent for the American Bible Society, in this State, for the purpose of consultation in regard to the reviving and re-organizing of the Caldwell county Bible Society. The following proceedings were had.

On motion H. C. Hamilton, Esq., was called to the chair and Dr. A. A. Scroggs appointed Secretary.

Exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Jesse Rankin. After which Rev. Mr. Hardie came forward with a brief address, alluding to the past history, present condition and future prospect of the American Bible Society, and urged the necessity of again reviving and re-organizing the "Caldwell Bible Society," once an active and efficient auxiliary to the Bible Society.

A motion was made that the "Bible Society of Caldwell county" be now revived and re-organized, which having unanimously passed, the form of Constitution, recommended by the Parent Society, was read article by article, and, after some slight amendments, was, on motion, unanimously adopted as a whole, after which a board of officers was elected as follows:

James Harper, President; Dr. A. A. Scroggs, 1st Vice President; Rev. Jno. B. Powell, 2nd Vice President; S. F. Patterson, Esq., 3d Vice President; Jno. E. Corpening, 4th Vice President; G. W. F. Harper, Treasurer; J. R. Wilson, Secretary.

Moved, that Mr. G. W. F. Harper be requested to continue the depository of the Society at his store.

On motion, the following resolution was passed and ordered to be published.

Resolved, That the "Caldwell county Bible Society" hereby most cordially express their appreciation of the generous offer of the American Bible Society to supply the destitute of our county, and that steps be taken at an early day to secure a suitable Colporteur for that purpose.

On motion, it was ordered, that a copy of these proceedings be sent to the Raleigh Sentinel and Fayetteville Presbyterian, with a request that they be published.

H. C. HAMILTON, Chairman.
A. A. SCROGGS, Secretary.

The Amnesty Bill.

The following bill was passed on yesterday in the House and will no doubt become a law.

Our Monday Morning Dispatches.

Ireland and the Fenians.

LONDON, Nov. 30.

An English gunboat left Sheerness yesterday, and another will leave to-day. Their destination was Ireland, and they carry with them a large supply of arms and ammunition, to be used in the suppression of the Fenian outbreak. No more arrests have been made.

Head Centre Stephens.

LONDON, Dec. 1.

Vague rumor has it that the chief organizer of Fenianism, Stephens, lately arrived in Paris and is now secreted there.

The Fenian Trials.

TORONTO, Dec. 1.

The Fenians who were sentenced to death will be respited for three months, to await the result of their appeal.

New York Items.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.

N. P. Willis was struck with paralysis yesterday, and is in a very critical condition.

A meeting was held last night, at Clinton Hall, by the French Canadians residing in the United States, protesting against the Canadian confederation scheme, as hostile to the United States, and declaring in favor of annexation to this republic.

Sensation in Paris.

PARIS, Dec. 2.

A dispatch from America, announcing the occupation of Matamoras by the United States troops, has caused a marked sensation here.

European News.

LONDON, Dec. 2.

All the regular troops in this city will be strictly confined to the precincts near their barracks during the reform meeting which takes place here on Monday.

Lieut. Maury, late Confederate naval commander, has arrived in London.

It is quite probable troops will be sent to Liverpool and Glasgow on account of the bad feeling that prevails among the Irish in these cities.

Many arrests of Fenians have been made by government officers in Ireland.

Additional from Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.

Gen. Sherman writes to the war department that the officer sent to investigate the charges contained in a recent article in the New York World, concerning the treatment of prisoners and soldiers at the Dry Tortugas, has made a report, in which he refutes the charge of inhumanity, in concluding the document, remarks: "The prisoners receive the same rations as the enlisted men of the post, are neatly and comfortably dressed, and the labor required of them is of a very light character.

Maj. Gen. Tilson, Assistant Commissioner of freedmen for Georgia, and Maj. Gen. Scott, Assistant Commissioner for South Carolina, who have been mustered out of service from this date, are to be retained in service until further orders.

A large number of congressmen arrived here to-night, and altogether there are about thirty Senators and seventy Representatives in the city. There seems to be no doubt of a quorum in both Houses on Monday, so far as can be ascertained by conversation and otherwise.

The idea of introducing articles of impeachment against the President of the United States finds but little if any favor.

It is said that the message of the President will be about the same as that of last year, and will occupy about an hour in the reading.

Arrest of one of the Assassins of Mr. Lincoln.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.

The following telegram over the Atlantic cable was received at the War Department to-day:

To Mr. Seward, Washington:—I have arrested John Surratt, one of President Lincoln's assassins. There is no doubt of his identity.

It is stated at Fenian headquarters here that Stephens has not left the country, having been seen lately at Boston, conversing with ship owners.

Large orders for breech-loading arms have been given to manufacturers, said to be intended for the Emperor of China.

Mexican News.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.

Letters from the city of Mexico, dated the 10th ult., state the fact that Gen. Bazene had given arms and ammunition to Mexican Liberals and promises them that they should not be interfered with by the French forces, provided they pronounced for Gen. Ortega and proclaim him as President of Mexico.

Markets.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.

Gold $1.40¾. The loan market shows symptoms of growing easier to call loans, and of growing distrust in commercial circles—current rate for government securities is 6; for choice bills 7@8; governments dull.

The Mexican Question.

PARIS, Dec. 1, 1866.

Mr. Bigelow United States Minister at Paris, recently read to Napoleon, in person, a very grave and decided dispatch from Secretary Seward. This dispatch, so report says, implicitly required France to fulfil the engagements she had entered into with regard to the Mexican question. The Emperor, however, made noreply.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

(Various items from Europe of no general interest, except the continued Fenian excitement, make up most of the dispatches.)

New York Market.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.

DIED,

Yesterday, in this city, after a brief illness, Mrs. MARIETTA M., wife of Geo. L. Tremoulet, in the 19th. year of her age.

At the Lunatic Asylum where he had been an inmate just one week, MARSHALL DICKERSON, of Pitt County. Mr. D. was a native of Connecticut, but came to Pitt County about the commencement of the present century, where he has left many friends, but no relations in this State. Mr. D. was a very old man, yet his exact age is not known, as on that point he was ever peculiarly sensitive; though it is said that he had often seen General Washington, and once voted for that great man. Connecticut papers please copy.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctor and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
Notary Public,
L. S. Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Gerrick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to desist.

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR Maggiel's Pills and Salve.

NOTICE.—None genuine without the engraved trademark around each pot or box, signed by Dr. J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine Street, New York, to counterfeit which is felony.

Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines throughout the United States and Canada—at 25 cents per box or pot.
